

Crooked Letter, Crooked Letter

A Novel, by Tom Franklin
(Morrow, $24.99, 9780060594664)

"This is a spellbinding novel about friendship, honesty and race relations in Mississippi. The two main characters, Silas Jones and Larry Ott, are childhood friends, who have been separated by circumstance and time. Now, adults, they are thrust in each other's path once again when a girl goes missing and the past must be confronted. A thriller as well as a character study, this powerful and redemptive novel, reminiscent of Dennis Lehane and Attica Locke, is unforgettable."

—Tova Beiser, Brown University Bookstore, Providence, RI
