

THIS MONTH'S #1

My Year of Rest and Relaxation: A Novel

By Ottessa Moshfegh
(Penguin Press, 9780525522119, $26)

"At first, My Year of Rest and Relaxation feels like the end of something, like a novel about the end of someone's life. But Moshfegh has a way of affirming life unlike any other author. Repercussions of grief, emotional exhaustion, and the general anchors of life hurl a young woman into the warm embrace of the idea of hibernating for a year. Of course, this cannot be so simply done. In true Moshfegh fashion, this journey is brimming with laconic humor, her brand of ne'er-do-wells, and ample substance intake, which all lead to one of the most existentially satisfying reads in recent memory."
